Budget System Change

Supt. Pier was authorized to attend a special meeting Feb. 8 to discuss recommended changes in school district budgeting systems. The meeting has been called by state superintendent of public instruction and will be held at Augustine's restaurant, Belleville.

Preliminary indications show that proposed changes may require many school districts to devise new accounting and records systems to provide more details in their annual budgets, Pier said.

The board approved installation of an additional telephone line in the high school office, as the present single line is being utilized by the principal, school nurse and cafeteria personnel.

Bus Shelters Studied

A decision to rebuild two 15-year-old shelters, previously used by bus riders at Eagle Park Acres and on Kerr Island, was temporarily deferred until it is established whether the shelters would be used as central loading areas. Presently, students are picked up in most streets in the vicinity of the two shelters and children are not required to wait at the two specific locations, it was explained.

Bills approved for payment from the educational fund totaled $4518 and included: $2073 to Graham's Book Store for basketball uniforms and shoes, playground equipment and other athletic equipment purchases for 12-month period; $400 to Gulf Transport Co. for athletic trips; and $1083 to Venice Gas & Oil Co. for fuel in December.

Bills totaling $829 were approved from the building fund and $15328 from the transportation fund. The $15328 was payment to the Bi-State Development Agency for transportation costs in December. A total of $607 was paid as the board's share to the Illinois Municipal Retirement Fund and to social security, while school lunch bills amounted to $137.

Remittances of $7305 from the educational fund were made for withholding taxes, hospitalization, teachers' union dues, teachers' pension fund and social security.

Mrs. Cruse Named GC Mothers March Leader

Mrs. Von Dee Cruse, 2406 Nameless road, has been named Granite City chairman for the annual Mothers March on Jan. 25 when volunteers will visit homes and apartments seeking contributions for the fight against birth defects.

Volunteers will be out between 10 a.m. and 10 p.m. and will leave envelopes for residents who are not at home when they call, Mrs. Cruse said.

Homes not visited before evening were requested to leave their porch lights turned on. Mrs. Cruse said volunteers will be wearing Mothers March badges to identify them.

"Our Marching Mothers have a true personal stake in this campaign against birth defects," she said. "More than anyone else, they realize the tragedy that birth defects can bring into a home."

"They want to do something about preventing these conditions which cripple limbs and retard minds and disrupt what should be a happy family life," she added.

New Trustee Inspects Levee District Property

William Ebersold of Venice, new member of the East Side Levee & Sanitary District board of trustees, spent Tuesday touring the district's right-of-ways, ditches and levees in Madison county and a portion of St. Clair county.

"It was very enlightening and I thought I should become familiar with the layout and the operation of the district," Ebersold said. He made the tour in a jeep with Ernest Brown of Granite City, a levee district superintendent, as his guide.

Ebersold, a railroad employee and also Venice city clerk, said he took the day off from work to make the tour. "We encountered quite a bit of mud, but the City Rotarians to joint luncheon meeting this month."

Council Defers Payment on Printing Governmental Book

Granite City council members are seeking a legal opinion before voting on payment of a $1787 printing bill for the governmental information booklet authorized by Alderman Bettine that was authorized for publication.

The printing bill, removed from the regular bill list at the outset of Monday night's 75-minute, brief session but not debated for 20 minutes at the end of the meeting with nearly every alderman offering comments.

Despite the prior authorization, the council is seeking an opinion from City Atty. George F. Hoff, Jr. on the legality of spending city funds on a publication copyrighted by an individual. Finance committee chairman Rutledge agreed the debate with a call for a vote on the payment as several aldermen called for a 8:35 p.m. adjournment. The discussion continued until 9:15 p.m. when two motions were made for deferral of action until the legal opinion is received. The council is to meet again in regular session on Jan. 18, but a special meeting on Namekoi road construction is scheduled for 7 p.m.

Buying 20 Copies. Meanwhile, the 101-expert governmental data book, "Bettine's Profile by the People of Granite City," is on sale for $2. With the purchase price going to the city to refund the printing cost, Alderman Bettine commented he was buying 20 copies and probably would get more.

Relief Cases Up In December

Relief cases in Namekoi township increased sharply in December, it was reported yesterday at the office of Supervisor Harry Briggs.

For the month there were 45 cases with 129 persons and costs of $4476 compared with 39 cases and costs of $3289 in December 1963. There were 41 cases with 131 persons and costs of $3269.

Total relief costs for the fiscal year amounted to $34,566, while in 1963, the cost was $40,472.

In this opening remarks, Rutledge said, "What we got is not what the council thought it was authorized. It is my own fault for not taking to read the people of the booklet."

Mrs. Bettine pointed out the council did not ask for the booklet, "I did it on my own," she said.

Alderman Thompson told the council, "I live with her thinking, it shouldn't be financed by the city."

Basarich answered him, pointing out the council had authorized the printing and in looking over the data presented by Mrs. Bettine several months ago should have read it over more closely.

Skubish then took the floor and said he had heard no opinion from the public, and that persons he had talked to who had read it said it was informative. "I make a motion we pay the bill."

"Maybe Not Been Hounded"
No immediate vote was sought, and Whitmer said that while he felt obligated to vote for the payment, he thought the booklet would be credited to the council. Legislative committee, headed by the alderman, rather than directly to her name. "Maybe I've been hounded. I knew the alderman was doing all the work, but I didn't realize the first few pages would be devoted to the author. I thought it was to be published by the city and not

Monique Is Unique—Has Four Toy Pups

Four miniature white snowballs arrived last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Graham, 2502 Holmes avenue, when the couple's white toy French poodle, Monique, gave birth to the quadruplets.

According to John Birdson, local poodle authority, a successful multiple birth for the toy poodle breed is an unusual event.

The Graham's, who groom and show poodles, maintain a "poodle beauty shop" in the basement of their home.

Venice School Picketing Discussed With Board

Two identical telegrams sent to Venice school authorities by Rev. Oscar S. Elridge, a Congress of Racial Equality official, requesting a meeting between the Core group, the Venice board of education and three members of the Lincoln faculty, were displayed Monday night by Board President Michael E. Leatherman. Five Core members were present at the monthly board meeting but no action was taken on such a conference.

The Core spokesman said the group plans regular picketing of the Venice public school on Broadway, urging dismissal of Lincoln Principal Robert Vickers, Mrs. Ann McKinney, fifth grade teacher, and Mrs. Ruth MacDonald, a school nurse. Previously, the Lincoln school has been picketed at various times.

A Nov. 24 incident which triggered the protest action involved the daughter of a Core member. The girl allegedly suffered a fracture of the left little finger in the school gym during the lunch hour. She was out of school for a while but has since resumed her classes.

Rev. Elridge objected to a newspaper account of the incident. He threatened to take the matter to federal authorities in an effort to have any federal aid received by the school district revoked. After Leatherman said no federal aid is received by the Venice district, Rev. Elridge commented that picketing will continue until satisfaction is obtained. He urged his delegation to leave the meeting.

Leatherman said the board had made a thorough investigation into the case and is completely satisfied with the conduct of the Lincoln school personnel.

an individual who glamorized herself.

Several aldermen commented that the booklet contained valuable data. "The original idea was good to answer the people's questions," Rutledge said, adding that he still thought the expenditure by the city would be illegal.

Others saying they believed the expenditure illegal were: Morton, Partney and Steinberg, who termed it a "personal journal."

Barotsiak called for the legal opinion from the city attorneys, based on the copyright, and added that he had suggested the publication be stalled until after next April's city election, since there would be changes in officials and other data. Morton said he had found a number of errors in the book.

Alderman's Comments. Mrs. Bettine explained she had copyrighted the book to prevent its use by other persons. "It is to be self-paying and 45000 citizens cannot copyright one's authorized work. The printing was not copyrighted and it did not matter who paid for the printing, be it the city or be it financed privately."

Political Pace Picking Up in Madison, Venice

E. J. Miller, Comptroller of Madison, denied today that he had refused petition blanks to a representative of an anti-city administration group planning to run a slate of candidates against incumbent officeholders.

Miller said petition blanks were not yet available when L. R. Patterson, president of the newly formed Madison-East-Madison Democratic club, requested the blanks earlier this week. In addition, Miller said, his office will issue petition blanks only to candidates and will not distribute them in quantity to any individual. He said blanks will be available within the next few days. First date for filing petitions of candidacy in the Madison city election is Jan. 25.

Meanwhile, organization of a ticket to oppose the Madison city administration slate was reported under way by the new Democratic club which was issued a corporation charter by the secretary of state's office a week ago.

City elections in Madison, Venice and Ponton Beach will be held April 20, two weeks after the election of Granite City officials. Opposition to incumbent officials also is reported organizing in Venice where John A. Mangiaracino, former Venetian alderman, has announced he will seek election as mayor, heading a full ticket of candidates. The ticket has not yet been completed.

Mangiaracino said he has obtained petitions for himself and for four aldermanic candidates, a candidate for city clerk and city treasurer.

Chamber Exploring Nameoki Road, School Qualifications

Highways, education, ice skating facilities and improvement of the former downtown post office site were among the topics discussed by the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce board during its January dinner meeting Tuesday night at the Rose Bowl.

It was announced that the Transportation and Highway Committee currently is engaged in three activities—confering with state highway officials in evaluating Quad-City area road plans, working with Venice City officials in their efforts to achieve an auto traffic underpass at the Broadway railroad crossing, and meetings with Granite City officials to urge an early start in widening and repaving of Nameoki road.

The Education Committee discussed plans to publicize general guidelines on ideal candidate qualifications prior to the 1963 school board filing period. The guidelines, relating to such points as residence, education and experience, are being assembled with the aid of state educational authorities.

Second activity of the Education Committee will be to seek to encourage a greater voting response to school elections in recent school elections.

Risks Inspected
It was reported that a citizen committee appointed by the park district to study feasibility of constructing an ice skating rink in Wilson Park has inspected rinks in Clayton, Mo., and Belleville. Recommendations in regard to a Granite City rink are being formulated.

Word is being awaited from Cong. Melvin Price on ways in which the park district could acquire the former post office property now held by the school district. The park has been proposed for the triangular block, it was noted.

The questions of whether a higher Granite City mayor salary should be set and whether full-time service should be expected of the mayor were referred to the Chamber Citizens Committee.

Final stages of a tourism promotional financial campaign were discussed, and election of Ralph Morris, Harold R. Packer and Chester Baker to the board of an area industrial development been waiting on Ponton Beach to take a stand in the sewer program. Since bonding authorities have requested a commitment as to village participation in the plan before giving any definite recommendation on revenue bonds needed to finance the project. Because it is a municipality in its own right, Ponton Beach cannot accept or reject the sewer program.

In the event of rejection, the number of users for the proposed Nameoki project would be reduced and the monthly charge in other sections would be increased.

Monthly Rate $1.67
The monthly charge rate has been established at approximately $1.66 under present scheduled rates of bond retirement and annual maintenance and operation costs.

When built, the sewer will require issuance of approximately $1,710,000 in revenue bonds. Additional income from tap-on fees estimated at $215,000 would give the township the total of $1,925,000 cost now estimated for the sewer project.

The sewer project is set up in the present engineer's report to consist of three sections. Largest of these would be that serving the Miracle Manor-Ponton Beach section. Total cost of this section, including the treatment plant, is listed at $1,263,296. The State Park section would cost $27,000, under present plans, including the $60,000 treatment plant.

The third section, the East Madison-Cherokee district, would cost $226,388, including treatment plant, costing $48,000. Annual operational costs for all three districts, including supervision and billing, is estimated at $29,000.

Skin-Game
The man who plays the horses contributes to the support of those who play a cinch.

While the levee board members expressed a "take it or leave it" attitude regarding Madison and Venice, Maerss noted the recently-called Board of Levees in advance of the Jan. 15 construction start deadline set by the federal government in allocating a grant to the levee district.

Following the presentation, Maerss, Dr. Lee and their delegates called for a recess to confer on the matter. They were adjourned to the city office. The group were City Atty. S. Harry Hartman of Venice and John Giffith of Madison, Venice and Madison attorneys.

Levee Board Cuts Sewage Treatment Fee to $1.05-$1.82

Holdout action by the cities of Madison and Venice resulted Tuesday night in the Levee and Sanitary District reducing its monthly charge for use of its proposed sewage treatment facility with the $1.60 minimum fee to be cut to "about $1.05."

With reservations, Mayors Maerss of Madison and Dr. Lee of Venice said their cities could be content in. However, the final decision is not to be made until the levee district receives a definite commitment from the city of Collinsville.

Representatives of Madison and Venice have been summoned to the state Sanitary Water Board at Springfield, Ill., to meet Monday during which they will be called upon to state whether they plan to participate in the levee district's program or proceed on their own.

Maerss commented Tuesday night that the job could be done by the two cities for a rental charge of about 80 cents, plus a collection fee of about 10 cents, equal the "about $1.05" revised fee of the levee district.

He asked that the monthly rental charge brackets be set up with three categories rather than the two now arranged. Originally, the fees were set at $1.60 per month for a household using up to 500 cubic feet of water a month and $2.70 for over 500 cubic feet, or "about $1.82."

Maerss asked for an intermediate bracket for a household using between 500 and 1,000 cubic feet. He said the levee district's engineering firm of Horner & Shiffrin for the bond reduction is taking about 60% of the residents of the two cities would be paying the higher monthly amount.

were Partner, Rutledge, Whitner, Johnson, Boyd, Dallas, Moenlein, Sternberg and Thompson. Opposing it were Shabazz, Mrs. Betnes, Barotank, Bergfield and Pence. None also opposed any changes in the specifications.

Moerlein said yesterday he doubted the necessity of the mayor's ordering the contractor to begin construction last month, despite the passage of the deadline. Davis told the Press-Record he was writing the Illinois Public Health office for confirmation.

Moerlein added that he was advised the city still has time to make a change in the type of filter equipment for the treatment plant and still could change to the lower cost Emco equipment, which uses synthetic cloth filter. The Kohnline-Sanderson filter specified by the project engineer has a stainless steel claspings media.

Hall Rates with AFL Greats

EDITOR'S NOTE: Ronnie season, he was cut from the Hall, former Granite City high school football star, has developed into one of professional football's finest defensive backs. His knack for intercepting enemy passes was a key factor in the Boston Patriots' early success in the American Football League's Eastern Division championship, a title they lost to the New England Patriots in the final game of the season Dec. 20.

This season, Hall intercepted 11 passes, missing 12 in 1963 by Houston's Fred Cline and tied this past season by New York's Dan Paulson. Hall and his family spent a few days here during the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Cochran, 3005 Myrtle avenue, before returning to their off-season home in Kansas City.

The following is a slightly condensed article about Hall by Joe Cashman, published in the Boston Record American.

Ron "Haystack" Hall, while at Missouri Valley College, was a triple-threat halfback. When he reported at the Patriots' training camp in 1960, he was immediately put on the defensive squad.

He played in all pre-season exhibitions as a safetyman. His only big bare expenses while he performed didn't satisfy coach working out. His bankroll was low. A few days before the opening game of the regular season, he was in need of money.

Col. Dan Marr, one of the 11 Hall has been picked as Pat's 10 part-owners, heard of a safetyman on the '64 AFL Hall's plight. Marr's scaffold All-Star first team by both the firm at the time was creating Associated Press and United Press-International.

Safety for Pittsburgh
Even before he first joined the Pittsburgh Steelers, Hall was known as a pro safetyman. A rookie in the NFL, he played the position for the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1960. But he was in reported for their final drill before the first game of the season, there was Hall on a not knowing whether he would scaffold all in overalls. They be available, the Steelers didn't wavered to him. He interrupted include him in their list. He showed only long enough to see Hall. Fortunately for the Steelers, Mike Holovak could.

It happened on that afternoon Pat, Mike Holovak could. Hall's career as an employee of the Steelers was over. Hall was on hand of Col. Dan Marr ended the day seeking information for feature Holovak was named coach of the club "Haystack" was one of the articles on the Boston Record American.

"Who is your best defensive back?" was one of the questions on the payroll by Mike Holovak. "That's the question," said Hall. "I'm the best defensive back in the game." Hall's career as an employee of the Steelers was over. Hall was on hand of Col. Dan Marr ended the day seeking information for feature Holovak was named coach of the club "Haystack" was one of the articles on the Boston Record American.

The Illinois Department of Conservation was announced Tuesday that fish dealers and wholesale fish dealers licenses must be renewed by Monday, Feb. 1.

Persons who fish exclusively in a salt water fish do not have to purchase fish dealer or wholesaler licenses.

Bait dealers or any other persons who sell live minnows, bait or wholesale must have a valid minnow dealer's license.

Licenses may be purchased from the Illinois Department of Conservation, 100 N. LaSalle St., from the Springfield office in the new State Office Building.

Upstate Teams Here Saturday for Match

Trying for their third straight victory in a rotating quadrangle, Granite City high school wrestlers will be hosts to three upstate teams Saturday afternoon.

Calling at the GCIS Memorial gymnasium will be the Peoria Peckins, the Lockport Porters, the Carl Sandburg Eagles of Orland Park.

First-round pairings are determined by blind draw with each team guaranteed of meeting four wrestlers from each of the other three schools. For example, the Warriors will face four men from Lockport, four from Peoria and four from Sandburg, with the draw determining at which weight classes.

Third place will be decided this way: 10 for individual first place, seven for second, four for third and two for fourth.

THE MADISON COUNTY SPORTSMAN

By DON HASTINGS
County Conservation Officer

I'm not sure it's the same order to know where violations towards the end of the season are occurring. But this season the "Thermostats" are, so there is no equal definitely look to the peak a violation, take a minute towards the last few weeks, and call me. This is as far as the arches just weren't produced, need to fear "getting involved" and yet hunters were sure it is certainly appreciated recoveries were around. They were regardless of the time-day or -but in the brush, thickets and night.

Gun Safety Needed

Hunting accidents involving very young boys, but this children continue to happen in was the experience of most of the county. Since I make reports on these, I am probably more of a threat to them than a hunter. I am a conservation officer, and I can see the need for more training of youngsters, with the biggest complaint stems in gun safety and hunting that covers would not hold. I care.

Imagine that many pointers and We offer the personnel and setters got more thrashings and program for gun safety classes as perennials this season than in if a local club or group will most of their lives before.

But the jumpy birds made it especially needed in the Quad-many dogs look bad, so they City area, where there is probably not always at fault. Four Hubcaps Stolen

Four hubcaps were stolen and a radio aerial was broken on a 1964 auto owned by Leonard Kuebler, 2409 Edison avenue, while it was parked at his home. He reported at 12:35 p.m. Wednesday.

MORE ABOUT 90-Cent Rate

Swift & Co., National Stockyards and National City, decide to endorse the program. He said the plan would have 12,480 accounts, but that the planned system could accommodate 30,000. The plan of Venice, Madison, the levee district and other areas communities involved have been invited to meet with the State Sanitary Water Board at 10 a.m. Monday in Springfield to explain why they have failed to meet a deadline in providing pollution abatement facilities.

Mayor Maers, who plans to attend, said Homer & Shiffrin's new rate schedules will be discussed and "we will tell the Water Board that the interest rate is not in our mind. I don't believe any board in the country would cite us because of this."

In other actions, the council placed on file for improvement of Cambridge avenue until it can be determined if Granite City may be able to go ahead with a joint program to include widening of the street, as proposed in 1960.

According to his office Tuesday afternoon, the A. J. Sebold Co. of Granite City submitted the low bid of $22,451 to resurface the 20-foot wide street from Elizabeth street to Edwardsville road, a 20-foot wide street from Elizabeth street to Edwardsville road, a 20-foot wide street from Elizabeth street to Edwardsville road, a 20-foot wide street from Elizabeth street to Edwardsville road.

Other bids were $23,087 by G. H. Stenberg & Co., $25,648 by Alton & Co. Inc., Springfield, and $25,936 by General Contracting Co. The mayor said Granite City Alderman Charles McGiffin has renewed interest in the original program, which bogged down five years ago because of a system of priorities in Granite City.

He said Granite City may obtain funds from Granite City Steel Co. by abandoning Omaha street, and an extension of Cambridge would provide a new outlet.

The expanded program would cost Madison and additional $10,000 to $12,000 and would include widening the street to 36 feet, removal of Union Electric Co. highlines, and installation of traffic signals at the Edwardsville road intersection. "We will try to work out details in a reasonable length of time," Maers said.

Epping is Witness In U. S. Tax Trial

Testimony that seven persons were put on the payroll of the East St. Louis public accounting firm of P. M. Messinger & Co. and drew $61,000 without working, was offered in Federal court at St. Louis Wednesday by Edward A. Epping, who served five years in prison in the Orville E. Hobbs "bridge embezzlement" scandal.

Epping testified in a hearing in which the government is seeking $30,820 from his former partner, Fred M. Messinger of Belleville. The Internal Revenue Service has refused to allow Messinger's deductions of $61,000 from 1953 to 1956. He told the court the seven men were placed on the firm's books to hedge, then state auditor, who requested the favor. Epping said he had discussed the matter with most of the seven persons.

Most of the seven persons, James E. Erickson, Floyd L. Henley, Robert E. Murphy, Michael S. Koval, Thelma Casper, John Casper and Glyn Hodie, received checks over a three-year period, the government claims.

The Messinger firm provided 40% of the auditing for Illinois agencies and institutions during the 3½ years prior to the Hobbs scandal. The hearing is expected to continue through Friday.

His Parked Car

Levell Williams, 38, of 311 Mercedia street, Venice, was injured in Madison at 12:30 p.m. Tuesday when the car he was driving struck a parked auto in the 900 block of Bigall street.

The parked car, owned by Carolyn Evans, 911 Bissell street, was damaged in the rear end on the left side.

Williams was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was treated for cuts to his nose and possible concussion and admitted for further treatment. Madison police said that upon his release, Levell Williams was driving, driving without a driver's license and using fictitious license plates will be filed.

A passenger suffered minor injuries in a three-car accident when an auto driven by Joseph Kiecher, Rural Route One, pulled onto Highway 3 after making a stop sign on West Potomac road and into the path of a car driven by Larry Henley, 18, of Rural Route One, at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday. The impact caused Kiecher's auto to spin around and strike the auto driven by Louis Swenson, Glenview, Ill.

Russ, 31, of East St. Louis, received minor cuts and bruises in a traffic collision at Venice at 3:35 p.m. Tuesday. The accident occurred when a car driven west on Broadway by Oscar A. Carlson, 54, East St. Louis, and a tractor-trailer truck driven by Edward G. Dowd, Royal Oak, Mich., collided as the trailer was being backed off a parking lot. Gas-diesel was not hospitalized.

Groschong Receives Khoury League Award

Marion Groschong, superintendent of the Venice park district, received a George Khoury Baseball Association service award at a monthly park board meeting Tuesday night.

The presentation was made by Austin Williams, president of the Madison-Venue Khoury League, in recognition of the service rendered. The league's baseball program by Groschong. Recovering from a recent illness, Groschong has just resumed his park duties. Leo Davinroy has been serving as acting superintendent.

Groschong announced that the skating rink on the tennis courts at Lee Park will be flooded today in anticipation of cold weather. He said the temperature must reach about 10 degrees before the skating area can be used.

Two board members whose terms expire this year indicated they will run for re-election April 6. Competing against them will be President William Ohendorf Jr., who has served since 1957, and Clifford Wagner, now in his second term. Others who wish to seek election may obtain petition forms by mail or at next month's meeting.

The annual meeting was held with engineering, inventory and treasury reports accepted and appointments made last month confirmed.

Budget Down $3500

At the regular monthly meeting, which followed a 15-minute recess, the trustees gave preliminary approval to a general operating budget of $990,000, down $3500 from last year's budget. Categories include: Project costs, $74,750; administration, $98,000; engineering, $51,500; maintenance, $305,200; police, $39,800; Illinois Municipal Retirement Fund, $60,000; and fund for deficiencies in collecting taxes, $60,000.

Figures of anticipated expenditures for bonds and interest, which made up $1,178,554 of last year's $2,112,054 total budget, are not yet complete. A public hearing on the budget is tentatively set for Feb. 5.

Ebersold recommended that the district give the city of Granite City a right-of-way across the Nankook drainage ditch at 84th street for construction of a walkway. He and new trustee Joseph Grant of Granite City inspected the present walkway, deciding heavy traffic along St. Clair made the area dangerous for pedestrians, especially school children. A. L. Kraemer, chief engineer, was instructed to contact Granite City officials on the matter.

Ebersold told the Press-Record that he, Grant and Ernest Brown, superintendent of the district's Granite City garage, inspected the drainage canal near Johnson road, where neighbors told them children frequently slid down a concrete walkway in an area littered with broken glass and tin cans.

At a result, Brown conceived a plan to build a concrete ramp for the children. "It might make some parents a little mad at first," Ebersold said, "but at least they'll know where their kids have been."

The board deferred action on lease renewal for the Granite City garage 1707 Madison avenue, until Grant and Ebersold can investigate the facilities and make a recommendation. The four-year lease expired last November.

A large turnout of delegates is expected at the Jan. 20 meeting of the Tri-City Trades and Labor Council when a new community services director is to be elected. Edwin Reskies, council president, announced the election at last night's meeting at the Labor Temple attended by 78 delegates. He expects about 200 to be present at the Jan. 20 meeting.

The selection is to be made from a field of 11 candidates seeking the $6500-a-year post. The former director, Edw. Hagmann, resigned the post last month and Reskies has been providing the service until a new director is selected.

Reskies said a national officer of the AFL-CIO Community Service Bureau, Berkeley Watson of the New York office, is to be here Jan. 14 to meet with the council's screening committee and John Stienberger, executive director of the Tri-Cities Area United Fund. The community services is a U.P.-sponsored agency, and the director shares the U.P. office.

Big Slash in SIU-SWU Request by State Board

The Illinois Board of Higher Education voted Tuesday to seek from the state legislature $79.9 million for SIU-SWU in 1965-66. The previous budget was $56.3 million, and the university had sought $85.5 million before being overruled this week.

The $15.6 million slash in the budget increase provoked the deepest of any; the five other universities were cut a total of only $2.2 million in their requests. The legislature often appropriates less than the amounts sought for operation of the universities, which have cited rising costs and salaries and expanding services.

Contradictions

Prior to the condemnation, there was no access road connecting the main residential area of Granite City with Madison road, other than Madison avenue. Feeling road forms the second principal access street—and the western and northern boundary of the Coolidge campus.

1957 Transaction
Kronstein's attention is known to have been called to the general vicinity of the school and Feeling road in 1957, when he agreed to sell whatever his interest might be in a parcel of real estate directly adjacent to the property that had been condemned by the school district.

It was vital to his suit to show that he did not delay unnecessarily in seeking remedial action. This was accomplished with the statement that it was 1950 before he was advised by an attorney of his potential interest in the school site. In effect, the large school had been "invisible" to him for over three years.

Just as the new state court system changed Kinney's title, City Judge Fred P. Schuman has become an associate circuit judge; circuit and associate circuit judges are not conducting private law practices.

However, city judges were permitted to practice law, and Schuman served as Kronstein's attorney in filing the suit. Later, Kronstein's interest in the campus was recorded as being transferred to Schuman, and Kenneth Kelly became the attorney.

Signing of Notice
Attorney Joseph C. Steele provided earlier legal counsel for Kronstein. Initial school condemnation.

denation records related. He signed the condemnation notice as Kronstein's lawyer, but a decade later Steele testified that he had lacked authority to represent Kronstein and that, therefore, notice had not been served.

The Press-Record was mentioned in the initial allegation, but this part later was dropped. Kronstein contended that the legal notice of the campus condemnation was published in three consecutive semi-weekly issues, whereas the law specifies three consecutive weeks.

A fourth publication in the third week was located in microfilm files of the newspaper; the school attorney Harry Faulkner had realized the deficiency and corrected it in time.

Whether Faulkner attempted to correct other procedural alleged now to have been inadequate may never be known.

Records Still Sought
Remaining records of his former law office and of the school district fail to provide the answer. In fact, Faulkner's entire file on the subject of the Coolidge-campus has never been found. The school system has publicly appealed for anyone with information to come forward.

Also lacking are deeds and title insurance of the type the school district has on other school sites—another contradiction.

Granite City is not the only place where records are missing; the testimony and documents have disclosed.

The register of tenants of the South Washash YMCA in Chicago was deemed pertinent to the case by the school district, but it was destroyed when that "Y" burned down.

Kronstein entered the picture when an attempt was made to determine later where Kronstein was at the time school authorities were seeking to contact him in conjunction with the condemnation.

Kronstein says he went to Chicago in November 1952, six months before local voters approved a bond issue which financed the site purchase and building construction. The election followed a lengthy study of school needs by hundreds of citizens, starting in 1952.

Restaurant Counterman
It was Kronstein's testimony that he worked for the Pixley & Ehler restaurant chain in Chicago and resided at the South Washash "Y."

The school system contended that correspondence with the Pixley & Ehler personnel office showed that Kronstein never worked for the firm; letters to the YMCA revealed that he had not resided there; and that, correspondence with Chicago Local 638 of the Drug Store, Soda Fountain and Luncheonette Employees' union showed that he belonged to the local in 1955 but not before then.

Counsel for Kronstein later obtained a statement from John J. Healy, personnel director and a Pixley & Ehler employee 37 years. He said Kronstein worked as a counterman in a restaurant at 808 West Madison street continuously from June 28, 1953, to Jan. 1, 1954, adding yet another contradiction to the list.

John Yurek, with the same chain 25 years and assistant manager of the restaurant on West Madison at the time, agrees that Kronstein was a counterman in the last half of 1953.

Research on his place of residence reached a "dead end" due to the fire. The court was told that no factual information is available, since the blaze destroyed all records of the YMCA dated prior to 1950.

Address Disputed
Another point of dispute is Kronstein's address, if any, in Granite City. The condemnation summons was left with his mother in 1953 and was mailed to him at what was called his usual address, 2406 Namok road. The two currently reside at 2412 Madison avenue.

Kronstein admitted living in the 2500 block of Cleveland Blvd. and the 2100 block of Grand avenue at various times. But he maintained that he never lived with his mother at 2406 Namok road, that he never knew she lived there, that he left this area without telling her where he was going, and that he was entirely out of touch with relatives and friends here for about five years, never writing to anyone.

All of the school board and most of the school administrative staff have changed since 1953. Thus, many of those with direct knowledge are deceased or out-of-town.

A final irony is that while those defending against the suit have had to attempt to reconstruct events as they occurred in 1953, there will be nothing old about the land value if a new financial judgment is rendered; it would be based on the up-to-date value of the property.

Relief Cases in GC Up for December

Granite City township's relief assistance increased sharply during December with 107 cases, 323 persons and costs of $4968.

These were increases in all categories over November when there were 89 cases with 238 persons and costs of $4340. In December 1963, aid of $5982 was given to 119 families with 402 individuals.

Relief costs during the current fiscal year totaled $63,433 on Dec. 31, compared to $53,972 during the same 10-month period of the 1963-64 fiscal year.

99 Persons on Venice Township Relief Rolls

Venice township relief recipients numbered 99 during December, compared to 85 in November and a range of 83 to 126 during the 1964 calendar year.

Number of families involved in the relief report was 58 in the month just ended, the same as in the previous month. The figure varied from a high of 79 in January to a low of 55 in September.

Preliminary expenditure listing for December was $5617, topping November's $2233 but trailing the January tally of $5101.

A comparison with the past month's statistics, 99, 58 and $4617, shows that 50 persons in 67 families received $4409 in December 1963.

Christian Science Topic To Be Spiritual Demands

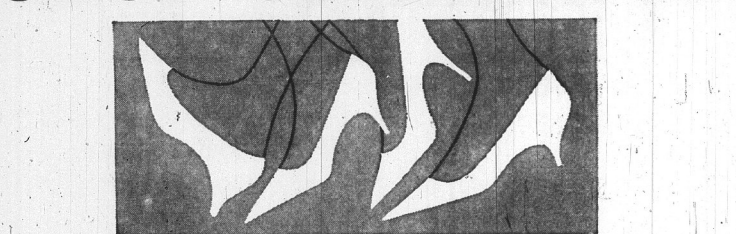

The spiritual demands of "divinity" will be brought out in the communion service to be held Sunday at all Christian Science churches, including First Church of Christ, Scientist, 2560 Delmar avenue.

Alderswoman Breaks Banks (Piggy) to Run for Mayor

Alderswoman Gabrielle Bettine opened her campaign as a candidate for mayor of Granite City, Ill., with a flourish Wednesday afternoon.

Becoming one of 14 persons holding petitions for mayor, she brought a number of "piggy" banks from home to the First Granite City National Bank where they were broken, counted and deposited before a battery of pre-arranged television cameras.

The pile of money, mostly change, totaled $151. Another $747 she had saved in a special account for a trip to Europe next year, will be used to help finance her campaign, she said. The money from the banks had been earmarked for a fur coat. At the bank she officially presented the publication, "Bettine's Profile by the People of Granite City, Ill.," to Mayor Leonard Davis, representing the city and Mrs. R. Paul Sims, vice-president of the Quad-City Ministerial Association, representing Protestant churches.

Lawrence McCauley, principal of Granite City high school, appeared upon invitation and accepted a copy in behalf of the school but said he had to leave before the ceremony started. Mrs. Bettine said the Rev. Joseph Enright, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, also was to participate but was out of town.

She added that the booklet was already in use in high school civics classes.

Payment for publication of the booklet currently is a matter of controversy in the city council, though it previously had agreed to stand the cost. Mrs. Bettine, meanwhile, has offered to foot the $1779 bill herself by floating a bank loan.

Davis, Unannounced

Before the start of the ceremony, Mayor Davis, who is not holding petitions for renomination, would not comment on whether he would become a candidate for a fifth term or if he would support anyone in the current field.

"I wish them all the luck in the world, including Mrs. Bettine," he said. "They all have a right to run. After we see who has filed, then I might have plenty to say."

In her statement Mrs. Bettine remarked, "The city has had very unhealthily respect for its city government for many years. 'I think it is going to take a woman to bring faith, confidence, integrity, respect and dignity to its city administration. 'I think I have to be this woman. I have been on the city council for eight years and I have been battling some of the hardest battles which have been unknown to any man on the council, just because I have been a woman. I have gained the respect of almost all the men. 'But it is my thought that we need a woman now who knows the job, who has the qualifications and the capabilities and on this score, I have no qualms nor do I believe there are any doubt. 'Look at the mayor material that is available. I know of no other woman who might be interested or who is inclined. It seems to be my clear responsibility, and my conscience tells me I must do. Most politicians build on shifting sands. We have to start back at the bottom, building on faith, confidence, integrity and so forth. This has been the greatest lack."

Old St. Mark's Cemetery To Be Conveyed to City

The old St. Mark's Cemetery in East Granite City, which most of the burials date back more than 50 years, is to be conveyed by the Roman Catholic Diocese of Springfield to Granite City for transformation into a "quiet park," thus eliminating the long-standing nuisance problem created by the conduct of the cemetery. It was reported this week by William Jenkins, assistant city inspector, who is heading the move.

Legal papers for conveyance of the deed to Granite City and a lease agreement between the city and the park district for maintenance of the area are expected to be worked out in time for the park district to begin work on the cemetery area this spring. While the most recent burials in the cemetery are believed to be more than 25 years old, and most of them more than 50 years old, some removals are expected.

Plans for creation of a quiet park and its maintenance by the park district was presented by Mayor Leonard Davis in December to Most Rev. William A. O'Connor, bishop of the Springfield Diocese. Bishop O'Connor recently informed the mayor that he agreed with the plan and authorized the city to prepare legal documents for conveyance.

Under the plan, clearing up the area, installation of memorials, markers and future maintenance of the area would in no way disturb the burials in the park area, and removing of burials will be left to the decision of relatives or responsible friends.

Thus far, city officials say about five burials have been arranged. Records of the cemetery now are in custody of Calvary Cemetery in Edwardsville township, where Harry Sampson, sexton, said the available records indicate about 1200 persons were buried in St. Mark's Cemetery before it fell into disuse, became overgrown with weeds and a public dumping ground. Sampson said that in most instances, arrangements for removals are made through funeral directors rather than through direct contact with other cemeteries.

In reference to the plan for a quiet park and maintenance of the area under regulations that would prohibit its use as a playground or recreation area, Bishop O'Connor wrote Mayor Davis that "I believe the suggestions which you have made with reference to the area will serve community needs and at the same time preserve the memory of persons buried in the cemetery."

Kiwanis to Celebrate 50th Anniversary

Installation of new officers, combined with a special celebration in observance of the 50th anniversary of Kiwanis International, was planned for Jan. 18 by the Granite City Kiwanis during a weekly dinner meeting held Monday evening at the Rose Bowl restaurant.

El. Gov. Theophilus W. Ross, ex-officio, presided over the meeting. The guest speaker and also will serve as installing officer.

Those to be installed are: Joseph Acquaviva, president; Herbert R. Schmitt, first vice-president; Peter Agard, second vice-president; Marvin Barnes, treasurer; Alvin Gross, secretary; and board members: Eugene Frey, George Melvin T. Gille, William Herman, Roy Peter, Sam Wolfe, Roy Graham and W. H. Marshall.

Schmitt, who was in charge of Monday night's business session, appointed Wilbur Waggoner and Gille to arrange a "Sweetheart Dinner" for Feb. 14, when a ladies' night will be enjoyed.

Fifteen members were present at the meeting.

Two Astronauts Dinner Guests in GC Home

Major Edward H. White and Capt. James A. McDivitt, astronauts chosen to make the four-day space trip in Spacecraft-4, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Pannett, 901 Rivera drive, early this week.

The two officers, attached to NASA at Houston, Texas, were at McDonnell Aircraft Corp. in St. Louis testing space equipment. Mr. Pannett is company vice manager for the Spacecraft-4 project for McDonnell Aircraft, and brought the two officers to Granite City for the weekend visit.

Proposal to Burn Houses Behind-the-Mill Rejected

Council members rejected a firm's North Plant dump for money-saving plan proposed by contractors interested in bidding on the razing of houses in the behind-the-mill area where Granite City Steel Co. is planning to proceed this year with a portion of its $120,000,000 three-year expansion program.

The contractors were seeking permission to burn the debris from the razed houses of the mill. At least six aldermen spoke against the proposal, including Fire Chief Elijah King said Monday night he was asked for the permit and told council members he recalled that permission was granted over a year ago for one of the houses to be burned to test fire-resistant paint and to provide a fire-fighting exercise for city firemen.

The objectors pointed out that while the contractors planned to centralize the burning as much as possible and to carry it out only during daylight hours when there was no wind, people living in the vicinity would be subject to smoke and possible dangers from embers.

This area to be razed is bounded by 20th street, Omaha street, Atlantic avenue and Edwardsville road, with most houses and other structures in that area to be torn down.

Four Crashes a Day

GC Sets Traffic Accident Record in 1964

Granite City set a record in 1964—an all-time high number of traffic accidents.

During the year, 1514 crashes were reported to police—an average of 4.1-a-day, compared to 3.1-a-day in 1963 and 1.7-a-day just a decade ago in 1954, when the annual report showed a total of 634 accidents.

While the injury rate also set a new record, with 494 personal injuries last year, the traffic fatality rate in Granite City was down in 1964, with three traffic deaths compared to five in 1963. There also were five traffic deaths a decade ago in 1954.

No estimate was available of the damages suffered by persons and property, but the state public safety department gave an estimate of $2,000,000 losses in 1962. In that year, there were 1033 accidents with 318 injuries and two deaths in Granite City.

December Top Month—The largest number of accidents for any one month occurred in December when there were 153 crashes with 52 injuries and one fatality, a pedestrian who walked into the side of a car on Madison avenue at 26th street.

The largest number of injuries was reported in October, when 36 persons were hurt in 140 accidents. There were no fatalities in October. The other traffic deaths occurred in February and in April.

There was not a single month with less than 100 accidents in the city. The lowest for the year was the 107 reported in June.

A monthly breakdown of the city's accidents, injuries and deaths, in that order, follows:

January—134, 26 and 0; February—130, 33 and 1; March—128, 48 and 0; April—124, 41 and 1; May—121, 37 and 0; June—107, 37 and 0; July—120, 45 and 0; August—122, 34 and 0; September—126, 34 and 0; October—140, 36 and 0; November—109, 29 and 0; and December—153, 52 and 1.

Arrests Made in Station Robbery, Shoplifting Case

Robbery and shoplifting suspects were arrested in the Quad-City area this week. Four burglaries and two attempts were reported, and there were three other theft cases.

A man suspected of robbing Wallace Roy, manager of the Standard service station, by the 60 and Highway 11, of about $70 Tuesday night was arrested later at a Collinsville road tavern and identified by the victim in a lineup at the county sheriff's headquarters.

Charged with armed robbery later was Richard Blade Upton of a Collinsville home. He was arrested after a preliminary hearing and was bound over to the grand jury by Edwardsville Magistrate William Traband, who held him in the county jail in lieu of $3000 bond.

At about 9:45 p.m. Roy notified the sheriff's department of the holdup, which he said occurred in the station. He said a 1957 or 1958 model red and white auto pulled into the station for gasoline and a man about 25 years old and 5 feet 8 inches tall left the car.

The driver gave the attendant $20 to pay for the gas, and when Roy was in the station to make change, the young man accosted him, shoved a .32 or .38 caliber automatic gun into his stomach and nervously demanded, "Give me the money or I'll kill you," according to the sheriff's office.

Roy told him not to shoot and took some money from his pocket, including $5 and $1 bills and coins. The car was spotted later by state troopers, and the license plates, the number of which had been jotted down, proved to be stolen.

Shoplifting Charge
Willie Brady, 30, of Manchester, Mo., pleaded not guilty Tuesday to a petty theft charge after he and two girls each 16 were arrested and accused of shoplifting at the Food's Department Store, 1944 State street, and the Edison shop, 19th street and Edison avenue.

The girls were released to St. Louis authorities. Brady reported that four men's suits valued at $40 each and four sport shirts valued at $10 each were stolen, and Libson's reported that clothing valued at about $108 was stolen.

Restaurant Burglary
An unknown amount of money was taken from a cigar and two pin ball machines and a juke box in a burglary at Tubby's restaurant, 1207 Nineteenth street, it was reported at 8:20 a.m. today. Entry was gained through the rear door.

Burglars broke into the Vanity Fair, Sixth street and Cambridge avenue, and stole a .410 gauge bolt action shotgun and a .22 caliber automatic rifle with a scope, according to a report to Madison police Monday by Robert Graham. Entry was gained by breaking a window on a side door. Value of the stolen items was not listed.

Two House Burglaries
Two house burglaries which occurred in the same block apparently during the Christmas holidays were reported to Granite City police Monday. Nothing was missing in either case.

One break-in was at the home of Jack Douglas, 2808 Pershing avenue, occurring between Dec. 27 and Monday. Entry was gained by breaking a pane in a living-room picture window and releasing a window latch. Windows were raised in two bedrooms. Two Christmas packages were opened. He said he had been gone for a week.

The other was at the home of Mrs. Edith Hill, 2824 Pershing avenue, between Dec. 22 and last Sunday. Entry was gained through a front bedroom window.

Entry Attempt Fails
Mrs. Margaret Jones, operator of the Clinton Tavern in Madison, told Madison police that an attempt to enter the tavern was made late Monday night or Tuesday morning. Part of a lock

Rotary Speaker Stresses Community Service

Active participation by all politicians and community service as the principal means of retaining the benefits and freedoms of the American system and its heritage, were stressed by Genevieve Sternberg, Seventh Ward alderman and president of the G. H. Sternberg General Contracting Co., who addressed a weekly luncheon at the Granite City Rotary Club Tuesday in the YMCA.

Sternberg, whose talk was entitled, "The Importance of the Citizen," reminded the 55 Rotarians present of the advantages of sticking to the old-fashioned virtues of respect for the dignity of the individual and allowing character and integrity to be the vehicle that delivers wisdom.

He defined as criminals, those who are actively at work to undermine the American system of government and classed as equals the guest speaker, Glen H. Abernethy, president during a brief business session and chairman for next week's meeting.

Assembly Organizes, Takes Up Legislation

The Illinois Senate was dealing with legislation this morning, several weeks earlier than usual—following yesterday's session of the six-month 1963 General Assembly, session in Springfield. New and re-elected state officials will be sworn in next Monday.

In the House, composed of 118 Democrats and 59 Republicans, 100 officers chosen were John P. Tooley, Chicago, speaker; Clyde Cheate, Anna, majority leader; Paul P. Edward, Chicago, majority whip; Albert Machmeister, Chicago, minority leader; and John Parkhurst, Peoria, minority whip.

Senate Republicans, who hold 23 of the 58 seats, earlier elected W. Russell Arrington, Evanston, as president pro tem; yesterday they elected John Peterson, Princeton, and Robert Cook, Waukegan, as co-whips. Democrats designated John H. Gloom, Chicago, as minority leader and Alan Dixon, Bellevue, as minority whip.

The Democratic administration proposed restricting both the House and Senate to one county a numerical edge over the remaining 101 counties. Governor, pushed through a constitutional amendment on tax revenue, conflict of interest legislation, anti-trust laws and private corporations to lend funds for industrial development.

was broken from a door on the west side of the building, but a report to Madison police Monday by Robert Graham. Entry was gained by breaking a window on a side door. Value of the stolen items was not listed.

NFO Discusses 6 Points Of Farm Program

Over 100 farmers attended the NFO annual held Tuesday at Marshall and heard talks by James H. Horne, of New Douglas, Madison county president who presently attended an NFO leaders' school at Corning, Iowa, and Truman May, county farm advisor, who discussed six points of the farm program.

They included collective bargaining for agriculture, poverty in agriculture and its relationship to the nation's unemployment, government programs and their costs in relation to benefits to farmers, today's farm prices compared to those over the past 20 years, holding acreage and their influence on prices, and marketing agreements and how they are being used to implement the system of collective bargaining contracts with processors.

It was announced a membership campaign is to be started in 23 states, and that a delegation is being sent to the NFO to expand NFO. An election of officers will be held at the next county meeting on Jan. 18.

21 Directors Named Deadline for '65 License Plates Only 5 Weeks Away

To New Industrial Planning Board

Twenty-one directors were elected to the initial board of the Illinois Metro East Industrial Development Corp. during a luncheon meeting Tuesday at the Illinois Club, East St. Louis. Four are from the St. Louis area: Chester L. Baker, president of Jivi-City Printing Co. and temporary chairman of the new group; Harold B. Fischer, president of the First Granite City National Bank; Ralph Morris III, of Morris Realty; and Lester B. Salem, general agent of the Illinois Terminal Railroad at Alton.

The 21, along with 15 other directors to be named from 12 permanent members of the development organization and the president, are to organize at a luncheon meeting Feb. 9, tentatively set to be held in Collinsville. They also will determine who will serve one, two or three-year terms. In the future, all terms are to be for three years, according to the by-laws.

List Other Directors
Other directors elected were Thomas W. Butler, general manager, Alton Electric Manufacturing Association; Shelton Griffin, president, Alton O. Nelson Co.; C. A. Holmgren, president of the First National Bank of Belleville; Clifford M. Pease, executive vice-president of the Belleville Chamber of Commerce.

Elmer Allan, Collinsville postmaster; William P. Horstman, representative, Illinois Joint Council of Business Representatives; Irwin Matur, president, State Bank of Collinsville; Raymond Bruchler, chief engineer, Alton & Southern Railroad; James H. Reed, executive vice-president, East St. Louis Chamber of Commerce; Norman Veiner, general manager, Cooper Terminal Co., East St. Louis; Arthur Becker, president, Edwardsville National Bank & Trust Co.; Robert L. Baker, president, Edwardsville Industrial Development Corp.; Robert Wade, Edwardsville, Illinois Bell Telephone Co.; George Berry, president, C. B. W. Transport Co., Wood River; Lee Rungler, manager, Sinclair Refining Co.; and Clarence Dunn, executive secretary, Wood River Township Chamber of Commerce.

Uplift Objectives
Baker urged the new directors to keep the objectives of the organization in mind at all times as they were listed in the by-laws approved in December. They include development of harmonious relationships between those interested in further industrial development of the area, new industry and expansion of existing industry on both sides of the river, promotion of the Illinois metropolitan area as a desirable location for industry, assistance in gathering necessary data for industrial development activities and assistance in solving problems arising, and to encourage constructive competition and discourage practices tending to divide or undermine other sections of the entire St. Louis area.

Information Jockeys Available
Baker reminded that information jockeys containing the Illinois Metro East emblem are available from Illinois Power Co., which instituted the new group.

"He asked the board to consider the possibility of appointing a permanent program committee and a permanent office staff and urged members to use the emblem in addition to decals, placards and other methods of publicizing the metropolitan area."

List Immediate Needs
Francis Kaur, executive director of the Greater Alton Association of Commerce, said immediate needs include cataloging of all available industrial sites so they could be immediately available to prospective industries, and production and consumption studies on various items used by area industries. Accumulated information, including tax rates, wage scales for various crafts, and other details could be kept at a central office, he added.

Fifty-six persons from Madison and St. Clair counties attended the meeting. Illinois Power Co. again served as host.

Reports Second Crash

Robert Kingsbury, 55, of 401 Wecker street, Venice, whose car was damaged in the first crash in a traffic accident early Monday morning, reported to police at 6:03 p.m. Monday that the rear of his car had been damaged in another accident in Venice on Market street at the railroad tracks. Police said the other car was driven by Robert E. Knap, 28, of 2047 Fourteenth street. Both cars were headed east on Market street. According to an accident report, Kingsbury backed his car into the rear of Knap's car, which was stopped at a crossing gate at the tracks.

With the holiday season now two weeks are required during the rush period for processing applications, motorists applying for '65 license plates by mail must have their applications in the secretary of state's office by Feb. 1 to be sure of having their plates in time.

Midnight Feb. 15 is the deadline for having the current plates received, 100,000 fewer than at the same time a year ago. The secretary of state is expected to be about 4,000,000.

Urging early application, Chamberlain pointed out that it has advantages for both mail applicants and those who purchase their plates at over-the-counter outlets in Springfield and Chicago.

Traffic Accident
A car driven north on Name street, was struck in the left rear by the eastbound auto of John N. Warren, St. Louis, at 4:45 p.m. Monday. Both cars making a left turn onto Iowa were damaged.

For mail applicants, the sooner the application is received, the sooner the plates can be mailed, and for over-the-counter purchasers, there is now little or no waiting in line to obtain the plates.

The evangelist is the Rev. Maurice Hart of Dallas, Tex., and Danny Brown of Sacramento, Calif., is organist.

Revival Services Are Continuing

Revival services which began Dec. 31 at the Assembly of God Church in Maryville will continue another two weeks, according to an announcement by the pastor, Rev. George Ankario.

OPPOSE FINDINGS OF POLLUTION COMMITTEE

To the Editor:

This is an appeal to the thinking ladies of the community—and any man who wants to listen, as well. But I would not make the appeal unless it could be based on facts. And women know and understand about household appliances.

First of all, dear ladies (and men), from a sanitary standpoint of view, as one household appliance, picture to yourself two kinds of big filters for the purpose of straining, or filtering, sewage (that is, raw sewage).

One filter is a cloth filter (as for coffee); the other filter is made of stainless steel coils which are self-cleaning each time they rotate around the drum.

The cloth filter, from the very first time it goes around the drum, starts getting dirtier and dirtier (and smellier); it requires more chemicals, from this point on, as a household, would you not spend a little more for the stainless steel coil filter?

Now, as to the costs of both. The stainless steel coil filter does cost $27.00 more to begin with. This is true. But, our engineers, and, handsomely by the way, wisely recommended this initial, greater expense.

The chairman of the Pollution Committee keeps shouting about saving the taxpayers' money by buying the cheaper cloth filter. The $27.00. His strongest argument after this was that the city does not need the heavy stainless steel equipment. It was too heavy and overbuilt, in other words. Let's save the taxpayers' money and buy the cloth filter because it will do the job satisfactorily, he says.

The chairman of the Pollution Committee was not willing to get into costs of a 40-year period, costs such as the cost of chemicals, of water, of labor costs which were broken down as follows between the two filters:

Twenty-year power costs: one cloth filter, $30.00; one coil filter, $20.00; a difference of $10.00.

Chemical costs—cloth filter, $30.00; coil, $20.00; a difference of $10.00.

Water costs—Cloth filter, $47.00; coil filter, $38.00; a difference of $9.00.

Costs, $20.00.

Total difference, $108.00, less the $27.00 initial difference of cost, $81.00.

Subtract the $10.00 initial saving (exclusive of the all-important cost of labor, which was not a factor of all), $71.00.

Since the biggest argument of the Pollution Committee was that the "unnecessary expense of the coil because of its stronger features," why is the committee now pushing for strengthening the recommendations in different areas?

When asked how much this would cost, he said he hoped it could be done for less than $100,000 or $200,000 or $300,000 or $400,000 or $500,000 or $600,000 or $700,000 or $800,000 or $900,000 or $1,000,000.

The chairman did not come in with predictions, yet firms in this essential information. I got them; he surely could have. No one tried to withhold information from me; why would he not do so for him? He was not interested and still is not interested.

The engineer was asked to verify the cost figures again. He said the figures were very close and that the labor costs would really even greater savings than above.

He reiterated that his firm and he would stand firmly with their recommendations. He said that he would make the filters even stronger, would he cost $200,000 or $300,000 or $400,000 or $500,000 or $600,000 or $700,000 or $800,000 or $900,000 or $1,000,000.

What happens when the city does not follow specifications set down by the engineers? Who is the blame? Yes, the council gets blamed.

Here is a matter in which the people should take an immediate interest, since it will affect the people for many years to come. This committee should not object to greater savings.

The council then went on to vote, letting the contract on the basis just as recommended. This was voted in. I am proud to state my position and my vote on this all important matter.

I shall be happy to be proven wrong if such be the case, in all talk for the real facts.

Driver Arrested

Kenneth H. Whitehead, 18, of 1414 Gray street, Madison, was charged with making an improper left turn after he made a right turn on the intersection of Ohio avenue and collided with a car driven by Doyle D. Taper, 2205 Park street, at 1414 Gray street, Monday. The right rear of the Taper car, northbound on Ohio and the front of the Whitehead auto were damaged.

Run-Around

A good diplomat on success, I shall be happy to be proven wrong if such be the case, in all talk for the real facts.

Quad-Cities' Record — 6 Accidents a Day

Traffic Crashes, Injuries Increase; Deaths Drop in 1964

Traffic accidents in the Quad-Cities soared to an average of 6.1 a day, with an average of 31 injuries each day and a fatality every 15 days.

The statistics show startling increases in the number of accidents and injuries and a 33% drop in traffic deaths, compared to the 1963 figures.

During 1964, a record-breaking 290 traffic accidents with 1133 injuries along with 24 deaths were recorded for the Quad-Cities. In 1963, the totals were 172 accidents, 56 deaths and 834 injuries.

The peak month for traffic crashes last year was December with 23 accidents. It also set the 1964 record for injuries with 117 and the four fatalities equaled the number in March and in October. December also was the danger month in 1963 with 22 accidents and 112 injuries setting records for that year. However, the four traffic deaths in December 1963 was under the five recorded in May 1963.

Two Months Without Deaths—There were no traffic deaths in 1964 without traffic deaths—June and September. Four were recorded for March, October and December; three in July; two in January, April and May, and one in February, August and November.

In five months last year more than 100 personal injuries were reported—108 in March, 112 in May, 103 in September, 112 in October and 117 in December.

In 1963, there was only one month with over 100 injuries—December with 112.

Three months last year had over 200 traffic accidents—March with 212, October with 208 and December with 235. In no one month did the total number drop below 165. That miniimum number was set in February. In 1963 the 200 mark was reached only in December.

A breakdown of the statistics by months, listing the number of accidents, injuries and deaths in that order, follows:

January—189, 75 and 2; February—165, 64 and 1; March—212, 108 and 4; April—175, 90 and 1; May—197, 112 and 2; June—178, 97 and 0; July—168, 87 and 3; August—178, 83 and 1; September—185, 103 and 0; October—208, November—172, 96 and 1, and December—235, 117 and 4.

Values on building permits for the month of December totaled $1,375,471, the first month in recent years to go over the million dollar mark. Twenty-one permits were issued during the month by Earl Bloomquist, building inspector, and City Clerk A. L. Stevens.

The largest item was Granite City's sewage treatment plant to cost $1,259,513. The second largest was obtained by National Auto Supply Co. last week for a $30,000 addition to the store at 19th street and Madison avenue. The contractor is General Contracting Co. of Granite City and the architect is Sheppard A. Ellis, St. Louis.

Seven permits were issued during the month for commercial and industrial purposes totaling $43,950. Other totals were new homes, four, $38,600; additions to homes, two, $8683; garages and porches, two, $1800; remodeling and repairs, four, $2975; and the sewage plant, $1,259,513. Two permits to raise structures were issued, with the work costing $1500.

Others obtaining permits during the last half of the month were Maddox Motors, 4100 Namocki road, plastic sign, $2300; Serrano Co., 2106 East 24th street, remodel store, front, $1500; One Hour Cleaners, 3210 Namocki road, illuminated sign, $1500; S. Capps, 1212 Twenty-third street, repairs of storm damage, $500.

Police Chief Asks Public Cooperate in 'Smut' Drive

Elimination of obscene literature is a cooperative project for everyone in the community and will require the combined efforts of everyone to conduct a successful campaign against it.

Police Chief R. J. Willardt said here today in calling upon all individuals to refrain from purchasing any magazines or books that might be considered in the "smut" class.

"Obscene literature is a problem for all citizens, not merely for those of one group, or that religious denomination," Willardt said. "Obscene menaces the whole society and all who care about the survival of the nation, and indeed civilization, should be concerned about it."

The police chief pointed out that probably one of the greatest snubbing blocks to suppression of obscenity from a legal standpoint has been the apparent difficulty in defining the term "obscene" and spelling out specific tests or standards under which any given material can be judged.

"Who is to blame for the abundant supply of obscene literature that can be purchased on newsstands, in drug stores, book stores and other retail outlets?" Willardt said. "It is easy to point an accusing finger at the publishers, the distributors and the retailers. Each must accept a share of the blame, but they are not alone... they have an accomplice—the public which purchases this smut."

Willardt said that obscene literature has been responsible for criminal behavior from vicious assaults to homicide. In the case of most sex murders, the killer is usually an avid reader of low-brow books and magazines. Sex criminals read this material and are clearly influenced by it, he added.

Salary Range Up For SIU Graduates

Commanding salaries that ranged up to 4 1/2% higher than last year, Southern Illinois University graduates of 1964 had the widest job market that has been open to any SIU graduating class as 843 personal interviewers visited the Carbondale campus.

The interviewer total showed an increase of 30% over 1963, according to Roy R. Bryant, placement service director. Employer representatives conducted 539 interviews with individual students.

The 1964 graduates accepted positions with business and industry in 37 states, 52 Illinois counties and 16 foreign countries. In the teaching field, 1964 graduates accepted positions in 33 states, 81 Illinois counties and seven foreign countries.

Graduates with technical training who entered business or industry received an average annual salary of $6810, slightly more than the previous year, while the non-technically trained rose 3 1/2% to $5750.

Average annual salary for 1964 bachelor's degree elementary teacher rose 2 1/2% to $4900 and the high school teacher's average salary also rose 2 1/2% to $5970. Master's degree graduates received larger increases—4 1/2% to $6400 for elementary teaching and slightly more than 4% to $6310 for secondary teaching.

Demand from business and industry for business graduates remains one of the strongest areas, and job opportunities for college graduates with the federal government also still on the increase, the report showed.

Heritage Room Opens In Carbondale Library

Reaffirming the days of Abraham Lincoln, a new American Heritage room will be opened Jan. 7 in Morris library at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale.

A door on the third floor of the library takes a visitor out of a modern decor into a setting of Illinois' rich past. Inside are two portraits of Lincoln, a collection of books on Lincoln, Victorian hall tree and bookcase used in Lincoln's time and an inlaid cherry chest of drawers made by Thomas Lincoln, father of the president.

Opening of the room was scheduled at a reception this afternoon in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Schoff of New York City on the occasion of publication of the SIU Press of the book, "Behind the Guns: The History of Battery I, 2nd Regiment, Illinois Light Artillery."

The battery history, SIU's contribution to the Civil War Centennial, was edited by Clyde C. Walton, Illinois state historian, from manuscripts in Schoff's collection of Civil War histories. Schoff is a department store executive. Other features also are included in the room.

Chevrolet Impala Sport Coupe

CHEVROLET—As roomy a car as Chevrolet's ever built.
When you take in everything, there's more room inside this car than in any Chevrolet as far back as they go. More room for shoulders and feet. So, besides the way a '65 Chevrolet looks and rides and is powered, we now have one more reason to ask you: What do you get by paying more for a car—except bigger monthly payments?

Chevelle Malibu Super Sport Coupe

CHEVELLE—The most popular intermediate-sized car you can buy.
Of all the cars its size, Chevelle is the biggest seller. Why? Because of its Full Coil suspension ride. Because many models come with thick carpeting, vinyl interiors. Because you get so much for your money.

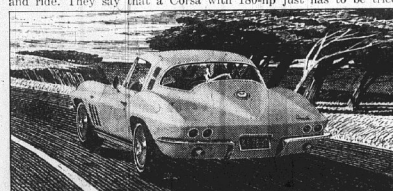

Corvair Corsa Sport Coupe

CORVAIR—The only rear engine American car made.
You should read what the car magazines say. They think there's nothing else this side of the Atlantic that can do as many stylish things and ride. They say that a Corvair with 180-hp just has to be tried.

We never felt better
in winter

...see what an electric humidifier does for the way you feel indoors

Vital moisture is literally baked out of the air in your home during the heating season. That's what causes the discomfort of dry nasal membranes and dried-out skin. And excessive dryness damages furniture, drapes and carpet too.

Moisture is the answer and an electric humidifier supplies it at the rate of gallons a day as needed. Try a humidifier at our expense—and see if the whole family doesn't feel better, and look better this winter.

5 DAY
FREE HOME TRIAL
Try this new automatic Toaster humidifier in your home for 5 days free. Then buy it, if you choose, on modest payments added on your electric bill. No obligation. Ask at our office for details.

City Master Plan Revision Contract On First Reading

Placed on first reading Monday night by Granite City council members was a resolution authorizing the mayor to enter a $4885 contract with the Southeastern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission to update the city's master plan and zoning ordinance.

Immediate adoption was urged by City Planning committee chairman Partney, but the council failed to suspend rules. Partney pointed out the city's zoning and boundary maps were out of date, and that federal assistance could be obtained to pay the remaining $3075 cost of the study.

However, several other council members said they saw no urgency for immediate adoption. The $4885 payment would be made in the current fiscal year, and in the 1965-66 fiscal year. Opposed to immediate approval were Aldermen Whitmer, Baker, and Berne. Berne said the only alternative was to wait.

Partney pointed out that copies of the agreement and the proposed maps were distributed to all council members, and that they had plenty of time to study it.

Under the agreement, the SWIMAPC would update the city's 1957 comprehensive plan and would revise the land use survey as well as submit recommendations for zoning revisions to keep pace with changes in the community with numerous innovations in the past seven years.

New city maps to include the annexed areas and to provide a way for the city to exercise control over development for 1 1/2 miles outside the limits in adjacent unincorporated areas would be furnished.

To be surveyed are six square miles of the city's 20 square miles. The city's type of use developed in the past 10 years would be mapped and analyzed as to utilization ratios for residential, commercial, industrial, public and semi-public, vacant and agricultural lands.

No action was taken on a recommendation by the City Planning Commission to permit a change in R-5 residential for the property of Dr. J. H. Vashoff, chiropractor, at 2006 Cleveland. Partney said plans call for the property to be used for an office. However, Third Ward use is specified in the letter from the Planning Commission.

March of Dimes Funds Being Used to Fight Birth Defects

"Birth defects kill and cripple more American children than any other human disaster," Mrs. Nina Bigley, Madison county chairman of the March of Dimes, stressed today along with announcing that the 1965 fund drive now is under way.

"The March of Dimes is leading the fight against birth defects because it believes the people are ready to join an all-out campaign against this terrible waste of human life," she added.

Mrs. Bigley, who last year for the first time led the local polio vaccine program for the county under the March of Dimes program, added that certain birth defects might be called perpetual disabilities since they are permanent. It is not an emergency which is transmitted from generation to generation. As for emergency, it is not an emergency which will enable more of them to live a useful life," Mrs. Bigley explained.

Scientists supported by March of Dimes grants are also at work in a great number of university laboratories in this country and abroad, seeking the causes of these conditions and ways of preventing them.

Mrs. Betty Walls, as Granite City registered nurse, is heading the countywide "Mothers' March" to be held Jan. 25 from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Leaders for the month-long fund campaign for the Quad-Cities include Boyd Presley for Granite City, Mrs. Ruby Wood for Madison and Milton Morris, Mrs. Hilda James and Mrs. Phyllis Jackson of Venice.

2 GC Policemen to Train For 2-State Metro Squad

Special training for two Granite City police officers who are to be assigned to the Illinois-Missouri Metro Squad, a unit to supplement the work of local law enforcement officers in the two-state metropolitan area, was authorized Monday night by the council.

Chief Willard is assigning Michael Devine of the detective unit and Patrolman Frank Harris, who is trained to handle a police dog, to attend six days of classes in St. Louis. They are to be allotted $5-a-day each for expenses.

The Metro Squad is to consist of police from Madison and St. Charles counties in Illinois and the city of St. Louis, St. Louis county and Franklin, Jefferson and St. Charles counties in Missouri along with officers of the Missouri and Illinois state highway police.

When the squad was first proposed at a meeting in St. Louis last November, it was expected that it would function similar to shock troops and would be staffed by experienced personnel from the various police departments. Its jurisdiction would extend across jurisdictional boundaries and the unit would relieve a small department of the investigative burden in major crimes. Arrests made in jurisdictions would be made by an officer in whose jurisdiction the arrest occurs.

The council also authorized Patrolman Willard to attend the
